

Cordless Grease Guns

The Next Generation in Lubrication.

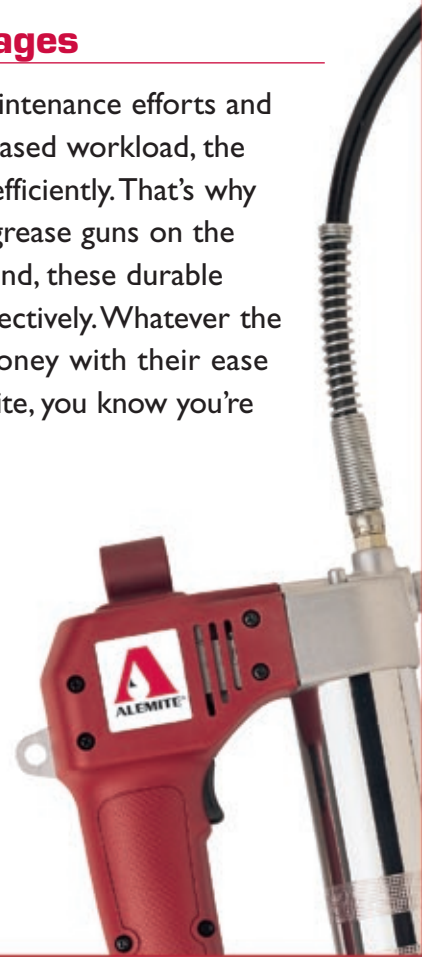

Since 1918, Alemite has been dedicated to offering high-quality products to meet the needs of industry. Now we bring that desire to supply only the best for our customers to our new cordless grease guns. Combined with our fast delivery and our standard one-year warranty, these superior products provide the performance and reliability you deserve.

575 / 585 Cordless Grease Guns: Speed and Convenience in Two Powerful Packages

As industrial facilities grow larger and more complex, so do the maintenance efforts and lubrication jobs that keep them up and running. To handle this increased workload, the right tools are needed to help complete the job quickly and more efficiently. That's why Alemite has developed the most powerful and innovative cordless grease guns on the market with our 575 and 585 models. Designed with the user in mind, these durable products offer you the ability to lubricate your equipment more effectively. Whatever the application, our dependable guns can save you precious time and money with their ease of handling and efficient operation. And because they're from Alemite, you know you're getting a high-quality product you can depend on.

“We have hundreds of lube points with all of the pumps and motors in our system. With these guns we can lube them all in less than half the time it took to do the job with the old lever guns – which means we can be more productive than ever before.”

– Ignacio Falcon, an industrial mechanic at the City of San Antonio's Water Filtration Plant
